They are a good alternative to a Bachelor Degree if you are unsure about committing the next three or four years. Studying a Diploma or Advanced Diploma allows you to gain credit towards your University Degree. This means that your Degree will be a shorter duration because you will be getting credit for the things you learnt in your Diploma or Advanced Diploma.

Our nationally recognised Certificate/Diploma qualification will give you credit towards the University degree you want to pursue. It is also a pathway towards getting qualified to enter the workplace in your chosen field.
If you haven’t completely made up your mind about what you want to do, it is also a way to gain experience in the field you are thinking about entering to make up your mind if it’s the right career path for you. Certificate and Diploma Courses are shorter duration than University Degrees and often cheaper. This in turn will save you money and time in the long run.

For those in the workforce
If you are already in the workforce, you can use the Certificate/Diploma qualification to formalise your existing skill set. This could be the difference between your current position and entering into an upper management role. Our courses have also been an opportunity for those wanting to pursue personal interests whilst working in their current field.

For those considering a career change
It is understandable that you would be hesitant in undertaking further study as you are already in the workforce. However, studying a Certificate or Diploma course will give you the head start you need in changing careers. They will provide you with the foundations necessary to enter into the field you have chosen. Also, our Children’s Services and Community Services Courses give you 80 hours work experience. This valuable experience increases your chances of finding employment or even gain a position with your work experience placement provider after completing your work placement.

For stay at home parents or those who have taken some time off from the workforce
Leaving the workforce for some time can be a difficult adjustment for some individuals; especially if there is uncertainty about returning to the workforce. Doing a Certificate or Diploma Course will bridge the gap between leaving your last job and entering the workforce again and will show your prospective employer that whilst you were not working, you were still being productive, working on your personal development and growth when including this in your CV.
