097927F / 10695NAT CERTIFICATE IV IN TEACHING ENGLISH TO SPEAKERS OF OTHER LANGUAGES (TESOL)

About this course

Certificate IV in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) is a course specifically designed for people wishing to teach English to speakers of other languages in Australia or internationally. This course covers the essential elements to teaching English to speakers of other languages and is highly practical with a major emphasis on practical teaching, which will be delivered through a combination of workshops, lesson observation and lesson delivery.

Career and study pathway

Certificate IV in TESOL is considered equivalent to the Cambridge / RSA Certificate in English Language Teaching to Adults (CELTA), which are recognised internationally as a qualification for teaching English as a foreign or second language (TEFL or TESL).

Learning Outcomes

The course involves an introduction to techniques of classroom management and assessment, and a more thorough introduction to presentation techniques, lesson preparation and analysing language for communicative purposes.

Program Structure

Our specialised program integrates theory and practical modules that have been comprehensively developed to provide students with the foundation skills to develop and deliver classes to speakers of other languages. Students have the opportunity to apply theory by practicing teaching and class observation.

Online Study

Online study is available for the Certificate IV in TESOL and Diploma of TESOL courses. This mode of study involves completing your course work externally through an online student system. You can complete the work from the comfort of your own home or anywhere else in the world.

Online study is not available for international students studying in Australia on a student visa.

Who is online study for?

The online study option is for those who are looking to study while working full time or looking for a flexible option for studying. It also gives you the opportunity to study and learn at your own pace.

Is support still available while I study?

There is still study support available for this mode of study through a designated trainer who will respond to any questions or queries you have during your course of study. Correspondence is generally through email however other forms of communication may be available. The Administration team is another point of contact for any general enquiries or concerns whilst completing the online course.

How does online study work?

Students will receive access to an online student system where they can access all learning material and assessment content. Students will receive a copy of the textbook by email as well as a Study Guide and Teaching Practice information booklet.

There is a maximum duration set for each course where the Assessment requirements for each Unit of Competency must be submitted and marked competent within the maximum time frame to complete the course. This requires prioritising your time so that you can complete all the units within the maximum time frame. If you need more time to complete your studies, we can look at options to extend your course end date.

Teaching practice is a requirement for the course, however students studying via our online program have the option of completing their teaching practice through an external provider, via video submission or you may arrange a date and time to complete your teaching practice on campus.

What happens when I complete my course?

Once you complete the course requirements and have confirmation from the College that you have completed your course requirements, you will be sent a Course Completion Form. Once that Form has been filled out and returned to the College, you will be issued your Certificate and Academic Transcript up to 14 days from the date we finish processing your Form.

Distance Study

Distance study is available for the Certificate IV in TESOL and Diploma of TESOL course. The distance study program allows you to complete your course work externally, from home or anywhere else in the world.

Distance study is not available for international students studying in Australia on a student visa.

Who is distance study for?

The distance study option is for those who are looking to study while working full time or looking for a flexible option for studying. It also gives you the opportunity to study and learn at your own pace. Distance study is ideal for individuals with limited access to internet connection.

Is support still available while I study?

There is still study support available for this mode of study through a designated Trainer who will respond to any questions or queries you have during your studies. Correspondence is generally through email. The Administration team is another point of contact for any general enquiries or concerns whilst completing the course via distance.

How does distance study work?

Students will receive their learning materials and course content on a USB which is sent via post.

There is a maximum duration set for each course where the Assessment requirements for each Unit of Competency must be submitted and marked competent within the maximum time frame to complete the course.
